

This reading plan is designed to help you read through the Bible over the course of a year. You'll note that books of the Bible aren't arranged in traditional order, but are presented to you in a roughly chronological scheme with two tracks, the Old Testament and New Testament, appearing side by side. In this way, you'll experience the rich variety of biblical books and authors, and gain historical perspective on the great events and themes the Bible describes. You'll find the Psalms interspersed throughout, and the four Gospels, which tell the story of the life of Jesus, placed strategic points in the plan.
